

i am deeply concerned that the fcc would consider overriding the indiana no call list. the list is voluntary only people who don't want telemarketing calls sign up for it. please help us continue to protect our privacy and make our own decisions about who we want to call our homes